NIMBIN FAMILY CENTRE

Funded by Family & Community Services

*Inspiring communities, families and children
to connect, move and grow.*

What Do We Provide?

The Nimbin Family Centre is aware of the individual needs of children and their parents/carers at different times in their lives. We are a free, open and non-judgmental service, offering:

- A child friendly environment with caring staff in a safe and clean meeting place. Morning tea is provided.

- Weekly playgroups:

Start Together Babies Group for parents & babies up to 12 months of age. Tuesdays 10am-12 noon in school term. These sessions focus on early childhood development & literacy.

Fridays Playgroup 10am-12noon during school term. For parents with their children up to school age.

- Guest speakers from a variety of different services with lots of interesting information on kids and families as directed by participants.
- Professional family support and helpful information on parenting.
- Group programs promoting pleasurable parenting, contact us for dates / times.

- Referral and Advocacy.
- Links to other services such as childcare, housing, legal service, family and child services and Start Together Program.

Who Can Use Our Services?

Families, friends and carers with children under 5 years living in Nimbin and the surrounding area.

Everyone is welcome including:

- Young parents
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families
- Parents with disabilities
- Families living in isolated areas
- Families from diverse cultural background

Opening Hours

Tuesdays & Fridays 10 am to 12 noon, during school term.

Accessing the Services

Drop in or phone 6689 0423.

You are welcome to attend our playgroups, chat with the Family Centre staff or drop in to play, feed baby or use the bathroom.

Where Are We?

Building E, Lilly Pilly Place, 81 Cullen Street, (car park in Sibley St), Nimbin.
